Top Hat

Leave top hat in box on top stair.
What is your name again? How can I get in touch with you if I have to?

Thank you from Phil Beth on Wednesday. RGT left. JVB and I went to the Library. JVB dusted shelves and I worked on my remarks for the 11 A.M. service at the BBC on Sunday. On my top stair when we returned from the auction was my top hat in its box. I had attached the note shown on the top of this page to my door and left a pen with the note and Joe Wojcik, 44 Belmont Street, Carbondale, returned my top hat during the time I was at the auction. Everything was OK with the hat I was pleased to discover. Kids tend to want to play with it and could easily damage the hat. I was pleased to lend the hat but I must say that I felt better when the hat was back in my possession.

What a strange sensation to be in the CPL at midnight on Saturday. I wrote my remarks on Compaq and typed them on the typewriter at the desk in the CPL.
